

THE GREEK PEOPLE NEED AMERICA'S HELP

THE BIRTHPLACE OF DEMOCRACY FIRES HAVE DEVASTATED GREECE THOUSANDS ARE HOMELESS

"Greece is witnessing unbelievable losses of lives and property, but also the livelihoods of countless people who will need assistance for many years to recover from this calamity."

ARCHBISHOP DEMETRIOS
GREEK ORTHODOX ARCHDIOCESE OF AMERICA

"The Greek Orthodox Archdiocese is making a National Appeal to help the Greeks who have been left homeless and devastated by the recent wildfires that swept through Greece. Please help the victims of this fire-ravaged nation by making a donation through the Greek Fire Relief Fund by visiting www.goarch.org, or mail your check or money order to the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America (earmarked for the Greek Fire Relief Fund), 8 East 79th Street, New York, NY 10075."

John A. Catsimatidis, Chairman & CEO, Red Apple

PLEASE JOIN THE FOLLOWING GREAT AMERICANS WHO HAVE ALREADY MADE GENEROUS DONATIONS:

Senator Paul Sarbanes
Senator Olympia Snowe
Mayor Michael R. Bloomberg
Nicholas Bouras

George & Margo Behrakis
John & Margo Catsimatidis
Jim Gianopoulos
Tom Hanks & Rita Wilson
Michael & Mary Jaharis

Melina Kanakaredes
Peter & Helen Kikis
Alex & Faye Spanos
Nia Vardalos

Please make checks or credit cards payable to: Greek Fire Relief Fund, 8 East 79th Street, New York, NY 10075 or contribute online at: www.goarch.org

Your contribution to the Greek Fire Relief Fund of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America are restricted for the purpose of providing relief for the victims of the fires in Greece and will be controlled by the Archdiocese and audited by an independent auditing firm. As a U.S. charitable entity under Internal Revenue Code section 501(a), your donations for this Fund are eligible for charitable deduction under IRC section 170 to the extent allowed under the law.